

Journal of
CHILD AND YOUTH CARE WORK

Copyright 1991 by
The National Organization of Child Care Work Associations, Inc.

Editorial: Advocating for Care	3
Introduction	5

ARTICLES AND LETTERS ABOUT TREATMENT

Views from the Inside: Young People's Perceptions of Residential Services	6
Peter Gabor and Ian Greene
Toward a Common Denominator in Effective Group Care Programming: The Concept of the Modifying Environment	20
Jerome Beker and Rewven Feuerstein
Views of Residential Treatment	35
Jack McElroy and Richard Small

INTERVIEWS WITH LEADERS

Careers in Residential Treatment	41
Jerome Beker, Larry Brendtro, Nicholas Long, and Henry Maier

TIPS FOR BEGINNING WRITERS

The Third Person Singular: Writing about the Child Care Relationship	55
Gerry Fewster
Writing for Publication: If So, Why? If Not Now, When?	63
Jerome Beker
Writing for Publication: Tips for Beginning Writers	69
Mark A. Krueger
The Review Process	76

Editorial Policy 78
 Instructions to Authors 80

POETRY AND FICTION

Essays and Poems by Mary Jean Meyer:
 Troubled Children Teach Us a Lot About Ourselves 81
 Five Poems from "Buried Treasures" 95
 Harvey Taylor
 The Multidisciplinary Posse and the Two Desperados 100
 David Thomas

ACCREDITATION

Child and Youth Care Education Consortium:
 Report on the Consideration of Accreditation for
 Child and Youth Care Education Programs..... 111
 Dr. Frances Ricks, Pierre Laliberté,
 Dr. Victor Savicki, Dr. Francis Hare